P’Nan stays single for three reasons. Firstly, she is too busy to be in a relationship, for she spends most of her time teaching and taking care of her students. Not surprisingly, students are her top priority. Secondly, P’Nan has been waiting for the one who is qualified enough to see her. To illustrate, P’Nan was once in a relationship with James, but he was too demanding and thereby seemed like a burden to P’Nan. Lastly, no one actually wants to be with her as she cannot do what a wife is supposed to do. For example, she doesn’t even know that water is needed to boil something. In short, P’Nan would be better off being alone for the rest of her life.
